A special place to stay

We like to be unique, providing only the very best to make your visit pleasurable and memorable. Our guests like to visit us time and time again to relax and feel refreshed. On arrival you will be served with a Devon cream tea – home made scones, local preserves and clotted cream and a choice of fine teas.

Our three spacious en-suite rooms each have a distinct style and character, however all meet our exacting standards with beautiful crisp white bed linen, comfortable surroundings and sparkling bathrooms.
